

INTEGRATED WASTE HYDROGEN UTILIZATION PROJECT IWHUP

Description:

Sacré-Davey is the lead partner in BC's Hydrogen Highway - Integrated Waste Hydrogen Utilization Project (IWHUP). It is a $20 million, multi-faceted, multi-partner collaboration that captures processed hydrogen from a vented waste stream in North Vancouver and promotes use through the development and demonstration of infrastructure and end use applications such as buses, trucks, and fuel cells.